

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
GREENVILLE DIVISION

IN RE CIVIL MATTERS            ) ASSIGNED BEFORE            )       STANDING ORDER
JUDGE HERLONG                )

In all civil cases before the undersigned, parties submitting exhibits which exceed fifty (50) pages shall furnish one bound copy of those exhibits for the court.<sup>1</sup> For trial purposes, two bound copies are required. The exhibits should be organized in a manner easily accessible to the court.

---

Henry M. Herlong, Jr.
United States District Judge

Greenville, South Carolina
July 19, 2002

---

<sup>1</sup> The exhibits should be bound in any manner that is secure, does not obscure the text, and permits the documents to lie reasonably flat when open.