STIPULATED MOTION MEDIATE AND STAY PROCEEDINGS ON APPEAL

By this motion, the parties request the Court to stay appellate proceedings for 90 days so they may pursue a mediated resolution of the matter.

The motion has been filed within 30 days of the filing of the notice of appeal. The parties understand that if mediation is not successful at resolving all issues to be raised on appeal, the Court will advance this case on the docket.

Appellant will file a status report within 90 days of the grant of this motion. If mediation is successful, the parties will file a stipulated motion to dismiss or stipulated motion to partially dismiss the appeal. If mediation is not completely successful, the record on appeal will be filed 60 days after the stay is lifted by the Court. Appellant acknowledges responsibility for contacting the district court to ensure that the record will be timely filed.
