

CURRICULUM VITAE

PETER B. BANDERA, M.D.

Education: Haverford College, Bachelor of Arts, 1982
Temple University School of Medicine,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 1987

Training: Residency:
Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania
Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, 1988-91
Clinical Instructor, University of Pennsylvania
School of Medicine, 1988-92

Board
Certification: American Academy of Physical Medicine &
Rehabilitation, 1992

Private Practice: Wilmington, Delaware
Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation,
Electromyography: 1991-present

Hospital
Affiliations: Medical Center of Delaware
St. Francis Hospital (Wilmington)
St. Agnes Hospital (Philadelphia)

Professional
Societies: American Medical Association
Medical Society of Delaware
New Castle Medical Association
American Academy of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation

Occupational
Health: Administrative Director, Industringare
St. Agnes Hospital, Philadelphia, 1994-present
City of Philadelphia, Medical Advisory Board, 1995-98

Community &
Health Related
Organizations: Visiting Nurses Association of Delaware
Medical Advisory Board, 1992-present

Awards: 1987 Moss Rehabilitation Hospital Class Prize